WHY TO CHOOSE NAPLES?

Naples has its own culture, difficult to understand at first glance. The mild climate, the sea and the sun which shines most of the year, has made the character of its people open and sociable.

Despite its contradictions, Naples is indeed famous for its centuries-old culture and an incredible artistic heritage, including museums, art galleries, ancient churches and monuments of the highest quality.

The town is within walking distance of the major archaeological sites of Pompeii and Herculaneum which represent one of the rare examples in the world of ancient cities remained intact through the centuries.
